

Walker Dendle
Candidate Testimonials

I would like to thank yourself and X for all the work you did to help me find a job!!! I am extremely grateful for your time and effort! I signed onto quite a number of agencies but only you guys met, and exceeded, my expectations!!! Others would learn a lot from the example you both set, and I would just like to say thank you very much!!!

As I'm sure you're aware, I have now completed on a contract starting with X as a Financial Controller. I just wanted to formally pass on my thanks to X for his hard work and support over the last few months. When I started this job search I originally made contact with various competitors and yourselves. What stood out about Walker Dendle was firstly its co-ordination, meaning I was only sent job specs fitting my role requirements. Secondly that despite a narrow search criteria I was offered several good opportunities to interview.

However, most importantly was that, having met X at my initial meeting, it was clear that he'd listened, taken on board what I was looking for, and aimed only to fulfill that. I never once had the impression of a 'bums in seats makes money' mentality that I've experienced with other agencies. He also proved to be a valuable interview mentor and certainly gave my confidence a boost on a couple of notable occasions!

Anyway, in a few short weeks I'll be managing five staff and will certainly look to Walker Dendle for my recruitment needs, either within the team or, in a few years time for my next role as an FD - now that'll be a good challenge for you!!!

Walker Dendle's level of service is the best that I have received from a UK recruitment consultant. Throughout my time in the UK I found it very difficult to meet recruitment consultants who genuinely had both the employer's and the candidate's needs as a priority, and my experience proved that Walker Dendle was one of the rare exceptions to this rule. On top of this I found X and X to be wonderful and was always left with a positive impression after my dealings with them. If I return to the UK I will definitely be entrusting my job hunting to Walker Dendle. Hope to be in contact with you in the future, and I will be passing fellow Aus workers your way.

I'm delighted to tell you that I have finally accepted an offer from X for a Business Analyst role - hopefully to start in early June. I wanted to say thanks to you for all your support and kindness over the last six months - it has been very much appreciated. I have recommended you to some of my ex-colleagues and their experience has been similar to mine. Regards to you, X, and all the team, and once again, thanks.

I approached Walker Dendle some months ago with a view to securing part time employment. I was introduced to X but after a short time it was apparent that the sort of work I was seeking did not come within the sphere of her company. This did not, however, deter X from giving me a considerable amount of her time in advising me of the best approach to achieving my objective. This without the slightest suggestion of any fee - quite remarkable in an age where the objective for most people is money. The interest X showed in me has been greatly appreciated.

Indeed, X contacted the local Chamber of Commerce on my behalf and through that organisation within a few months I had obtained the part time employment I was seeking. I am extremely grateful to X and it is quite refreshing to find a company that puts the interest of the individual above all else. I have generally found that when a principle starts at the top it is endemic throughout the company. I am sure this is the case in Walker Dendle.
